You've already had several years of university training in preparation for the MCAT. By working from your current strengths toward mastery of MCAT strategies, the Learning Resources Center helps you go into exam day with confidence.

The summer MCAT review session is scheduled for July 13 through 17, 2009. This will be an intensive one week session meeting from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. each day. All materials, including lunch, will be provided. Students interested in the summer session will need to make a $100.00 non-refundable deposit by June 1, 2009.
